Hotel Johann is easy to reach by public transport. The U-Bahn (metro) lines U1, U3, U6 and U7 are just a short walk from the hotel. The closest stations are “Gneisenaustrasse”, “Hallesches Tor” and “Prinzenstrasse”.

Berlin has a well-developed public transport system. The city is divided into three rings: A, B and C. Tickets for fare zone (“Tarifbereich”) AB are exactly right for travel inside Berlin. The Airport BER is outside of Berlin (in Tarifbereich C). Ticket machines can be found in most stations. You can pay cash and in most cases with a Maestro Card. Don't forget to stamp your ticket before boarding. Tickets may also be purchased directly from bus drivers and on trams. More information on prices, connections or disrupted services can be found at www.bvg.de.

Travelling from BER Airport

You can reach the Hotel from BER Airport by public transport in various ways. You need a ticket for the fare zones ABC.

For example, with the regional trains RE7 or RB14 in the direction of the city centre: Change at “Friedrichstrasse” and take the subway line U6 in the direction of “Alt Mariendorf”. Get out at “Hallesches Tor”.

Or with the S-Bahn line S45: Change at the station “S+U Tempelhof” and take the subway line U6 in the direction of “Alt Tegel”. Get out at “Hallesches Tor”.

When you get out at “Hallesches Tor”, please take the exit in the direction of the “Amerika Gedenkbibliothek”. On your left you will see a church tower above the trees. Johanniterstrasse begins at this church. From there Hotel Johann is just a few metres away.

Travelling from Berlin Hauptbahnhof (Main Station)

Take the M41 bus in the direction of “Sonnenallee” and get off at “Tempelherrenstr.”. Follow Tempelherrenstrasse and turn left into Johanniterstrasse. You need a ticket for the fare zones AB.
